A TRADITION STEEPED IN HISTORY

COMMENCEMENT PROCESSION

A procession of the various participants begins and ends our formal commencement ceremony. Individuals are arranged to reflect the order of academic rank in the hierarchy of the traditional European university.

At SNHU, the Mace Bearer leads the procession. He or she is followed by the Faculty Marshals, the Platform Party, and then the Faculty of the schools arranged in order of seniority, beginning with the senior faculty. The procession is concluded by the degree candidates. They enter in groups representing their schools/units, led by a gonfalon (flag) and walking in rank.

CEREMONIAL MACE

The mace was first used as a weapon. The word comes from the Latin 'mateola,' meaning mallet or staff. It consisted of a long club with a ball of steel or brass at one end. As newer weapons came into use, the mace lost its prime purpose as an instrument of war; however, it had become a symbol of authority and power. Universities in Europe with roots in the Middle Ages adopted maces as symbols of authority and unity. Since then, other institutions of higher learning have come to use the mace in their ceremonies.

Southern New Hampshire University commissioned David Elwell, a New Hampshire silversmith, to create a mace to commemorate the university's 50th anniversary commencement. This mace is made of brass, aluminum, copper, and bronze, with a staff of ebony and African padauk.

THE PRESIDENTIAL MEDALLION

The Presidential Medallion, worn by the president with academic regalia, is a symbolic representation of the authority and responsibility vested by the university in the president. It is a symbol of office that dates from medieval times and is worn by the president at all ceremonial occasions.

The Presidential Medallion is a permanent possession of the university and is presented to successive presidents at their inaugurations by the chairman of the Board of Trustees. The chain and medallion are fabricated from sterling silver. The university emblem, in relief, is the central design on the medallion. It is surrounded by a border of entwined wires, similar in texture to the chain links, and finished with a square raised edge. The heavy, twisted links of the chain bear four oval plates on each side. The background of the entire piece is oxidized to highlight the relief design and textures. The names of those who have held the office are engraved on the reverse side of the medallion.

The Presidential Medallion was designed and fabricated in 1987 by award-winning New Hampshire metalsmith Jacquelyn Ferrency of Milford.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The academic costume worn today originated in the universities of the Middle Ages, when a warm gown and hood were useful for scholars and clerics in unheated buildings. The distinctive gowns served to set students apart from their fellow citizens, hence the perennial controversy between ‘town and gown.’

Until after the Civil War, students at most American universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence. These varied in design until they were standardized by the American Intercollegiate Commission in 1894. At that time it was decided that all robes would be black; bachelor’s gowns would have long, pointed sleeves; master’s gowns would have long, closed sleeves with slits for the arms at the elbows; and doctor’s gowns would have very full, bell-shaped sleeves, each with three velvet bands matching the velvet facing of the gown opening.

The length of hoods varies with the degree. The lining of the hood indicates the university by the colors. The border of the hood indicates the academic discipline in which the degree was earned.

Students who have studied abroad for one or more semesters will be wearing a sash with the colors of the flag of the country where they studied. The sashes are issued to signify the university’s commitment to provide students with opportunities for acquiring international and cross-cultural experience.

The colors for academic fields established by the American Council on Education include:

Agriculture	maize
Arts, Letters and Humanities	white
Business, Commerce and Accounting	light brown
Dentistry	lilac
Economics	copper
Education	light blue
Engineering	orange
Fine Arts	brown
Forestry	russet
Journalism	crimson
Law	purple
Library Science	lemon
Medicine	green
Music	pink
Nursing	apricot
Oratory	silver gray
Pharmacy	olive green
Philosophy	dark blue
Physical Education	sage green
Public Administration	peacock blue
Science	golden yellow
Social Work	citron
Theology	scarlet
Veterinary Science	gray

(Caps and gowns representing degrees from foreign universities may be quite different from those described. The most obvious difference may be in the cap, which is often a soft, round hat of the style worn by medieval scholars.)

STUDENT SPEAKER

YOLANDA COXMaster of Science*

Good morning, President LeBlanc, Distinguished Deans, Board of Trustees, Staff, Faculty, Friends, Family, and my fellow graduates...

As a member of the 2021 Graduating Class, it brings me great pleasure to stand with you as we hold our light up for our tribes to find us. We all recognized that we wanted more and coming to SNHU was the best decision for us because look at us, we have succeeded and are here right now.

If you were anything like me, you talked to your friends, family and even your co-workers to find out if going back to school was the right thing to do. You then made the decision to say YES! You opened the computer, completed the application, and hit submit because you said, "It's time for me to level up and Southern New Hampshire University is the school for me."

It wasn't an easy journey to get to this day. I'm sure there were some weeks that everything was turned in long before the due date. Then there were other times that at 11:58p local time on a Thursday you were just submitting your discussion post. The beauty of the SNHU programming is that it is open to those of us who work full time, raise children, and build brands while staying connected to our friends and family. We wear many hats, but we were committed to the process that would take us to that next level.

We knew if we finished the race, our tribe would be ready for us. You may not realize it, but our tribe was cheering us along the way. They were excited when you posted your grades on social media. They sent virtual hugs when you were struggling to make it through the week. They knew your YES to this process would deliver something special to them but ultimately it would unlock the greater inside you.

As we stand here side by side, let's make sure we tell those who are on their way to SNHU that the decision to press submit is one that will change their lives and the lives of those around them. We will tell them with one collective voice that they can succeed as long as they stay the course and remember the reason they said YES in the beginning.

My fellow graduates, we made it.

Now it's time for us to show up and shine.

STUDENT SPEAKER

KATHLEEN GREENWOOD

Bachelor of Arts, Summa Cum Laude

Good afternoon, President LeBlanc, Distinguished Deans, Board of Trustees, Staff, Faculty, Friends, Family, and our fellow graduates...

My name is Kathy Greenwood and my name is Jason Greenwood and like all of you, we have a story.

My story is that, after 30 years, and a very successful I.T. career, I felt that I needed to plug the hole in my resume, and finally get the degree I started, but never finished, long ago.

I am a high school dropout and self-taught business analyst, also with a successful career, but who was turned down for a job because I lacked a degree. I decided that if I needed a degree, I would get it in something I loved. Anthropology.

Individually, we all have our own stories, but as part of the diverse body of SNHU graduates this year...

Or last year... or the year before...

... we all share a story... the story of the struggle to earn our college degrees.

Kathy and I went through our journey together, spending long nights and longer weekends studying next to one another, working toward the goal of earning our degrees.

We worked from home together in the same office as well. We've definitely pressure tested our relationship!

All of us here have given up time, with friends, with family, and invested it in our education. Benjamin Franklin once said, "An investment in knowledge pays the best interest", and we kept focusing on that payoff, knowing that eventually, we'd be sitting here, today.

JASON GREENWOOD

Bachelor of Science, Summa Cum Laude

Regardless of color, age, gender, on-line or in-person: that drive, that sacrifice, that goal, is something we all share.

We share another story, as well. A global story.

A story that unites us in ways that go beyond our diverse backgrounds and reasons for attending college. COVID-19.

No matter who you were, or where you were, this was something that affected us all.

Some of us lost jobs, some of us lost loved ones. All of us lost what we thought of as normal.

Working from home, home schooling our kids, wondering when we'd be able to see friends and family again, all of us were impacted. This was our shared story.

But though this story impacted us, it didn't define us. We kept studying, we kept striving. We kept our focus on our goals, and SNHU kept its focus on us.

While everything else was in flux, SNHU was there, as always. Advisors, professors, all the people and all the parts that make up the college experience never stopped.

And neither did you. You didn't let adversity stop you. You persevered. Jane Goodall said, "Every individual matters. Every individual has a role to play. Every individual makes a difference." Because of that perseverance, you're here, in this auditorium, going forth to make a difference.

Because of that perseverance, you're college graduates.

You kept your eye on filling in that gap in your resume or finally getting your degree in something you love and you should be congratulated!

COUNSELING PROGRAMS

COUNSELING PROGRAMS

The mission of the masters in Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program is to empower new generations of counselors by transforming the lives of our students, and through them, the lives of the clients and communities they will serve. To achieve this, we deliver innovative, experiential counselor education, create an inclusive environment, and nurture authentic relationships. We recognize that earning a degree in counseling is more than just acquiring a base of knowledge and theories; it is about developing an identity as a healer. The journey from novice to expert counselor takes many years. The completion of a master's degree is just one step in that journey; yet today, the faculty and staff of the Counseling program at SNHU are proud to present these students who have, by their hard work and perseverance, demonstrated they are ready to take the next step in their journeys, well prepared to have a positive impact on the lives of others, and are grounded in ethical practice that promotes unconditional positive regard and cultural humility towards themselves and their clients.

LIBERAL ARTS PROGRAMS

LIBERAL ARTS PROGRAMS

Southern New Hampshire University's Liberal Arts programs embrace both passion and practicality within our many diverse undergraduate and graduate programs, such as Communication, Creative Writing, Digital Photography, English, Game Art and Development, Graphic Design, and History. Our mission is to guide our students' exploration of the human experience to enrich their journeys as dynamic global citizens. In doing this, we foster the development of practical skills, leading to success in their chosen professional paths. We cultivate a passionate community that practices respect, collaboration, creativity, leadership, and communication. Regardless of discipline area, a Liberal Arts education challenges students to expand their minds while encouraging empathy and self-reflection. Liberal Arts promotes objective examination of new ideas and thoughts, and helps incite creativity and the development of critical problem-solving skills. Liberal arts students sharpen their communication skills for different audiences in a variety of contexts and formats. Students learn to question assumptions in the search for truth. Emboldened by their liberal arts education, our students have a meaningful impact on their local and global communities, as they imagine and bring about a better future.

SOCIAL SCIENCE PROGRAMS

SOCIAL SCIENCES PROGRAMS

Southern New Hampshire University's Social Science programs empower and support students to transform their lives and the lives of those around them through high quality and innovative educational practices that enrich their knowledge and skills in the helping professions. Students apply their knowledge of human behavior through our programs in Anthropology, Criminal Justice, Human Services, Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology. Our programs provide students with insights at the individual, societal, and global levels in order to create a richer understanding of multiple perspectives and cultures. Students also hone their skills in analysis, critical thinking, problem-solving, communication, ethical reasoning, and professionalism through authentic assessments as well as experiential learning and internship opportunities. The Social Sciences department seeks to prepare students to achieve their short and longterm goals and make a positive, lasting impact within their communities in a variety of career paths and contexts.

SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, ENGINEERING & MATHEMATICS (STEM) PROGRAMS

SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, ENGINEERING & MATHEMATICS (STEM) PROGRAMS

Southern New Hampshire University's STEM Department mission is to provide flexible, learner focused, industry driven, affordable, and accessible educational opportunities with unparalleled support for learners who otherwise would not have the opportunity to pursue a STEM career. The STEM Department encompasses many robust and challenging programs that enable learners to build confidence and skills, to grow as independent, critical thinkers and problem solvers, and ultimately to succeed in their goals. Our programs engage students' diverse learning styles through the use of projects, technology, industry tools, experiential learning, and environments that both adhere to our rigorous learning outcomes and are authentic to the relevant field of professional practice. We take great pride in never giving up on any student who is putting forth the effort to achieve his or her academic goals, and in providing our students with a transformative educational experience.
